into a patrol for the protection of the city, to serve such duty as the Mayor, Sheriff, and Chairman of the Board of Police may require.

Resolved, That the Chairman (W. B. Greenlaw), J. H. McManis, S. P. Walker, and R. C. Brinkley be required to wait upon General Stoneman, and inform him of the proceedings of this meeting.

R. C. BRINKLEY, Secretary. Upon the receipt of which resolution the following orders were issued:—

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF TENNESSEE, MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 8.—To the Mayor, City Council, and all the Officers of the County of Shelby and City of Memphis—General Stoneman, and inform him of the proceedings of this meeting.

At the same time four companies of the 16th U. S. Infantry (by telegraph) were ordered from Nashville, on special train. During the night of the 8th the city was strongly patrolled, in anticipation that attempts would be made to carry out many threats of murder and incendiarism that had been made against the Freedmen's Bureau, Northern men, and the negroes.

Nothing specially serious nature occurred, and on the evening of the 4th, the four companies ordered from Nashville arrived, under command of Brevet Major Christopher, which had a most salutary effect towards the preservation of public peace. Upon the restoration of order on the evening of the 4th, the four companies and the following communication addressed to the Mayor of the City of Memphis:—

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Haydn's cantata, or rather musical farce, was given by the Grand Haydn Society, to a moderately full house. This composition, one of the latest of Haydn's, if not his most recent, is a fine specimen of his power as a composer.

WOODEN BUILDINGS.—An attempt has been made, during the past few days, to remove some frame buildings from Fourth and Diamond streets, and erect thereon a building of brick and stone.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Mackay takes his benefit this evening. There is great interest in the occasion, as Mr. Mackay will play two parts in which his great talents as a character-actor—that is, the part of the murderer, and the part of the murderer's wife.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—The season at this popular place of amusement closes on Saturday night. During the short season, they have played each and every play that has been introduced, and have done so with a success that has not been surpassed in any other theatre in the city.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Hamlet will be played at this theatre on Friday night. It is a play which has been played in this city for many years, and has always been received with great interest.

THE BLACK SWAN.—To-morrow evening Miss Greenfield will entertain at Concert Hall, assisted by a number of our best musicians. The programme is a very interesting one, and will be well received by the public.

ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS.—The "Carolina Twins" must not be forgotten. They make a first appearance in this city to-morrow, and they are undoubtedly well received by the public.

PERILL.—On Saturday evening, with Perill himself. The last of the series.

CITY INTELLIGENCE. For Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.

THE ODD FELLOWS.—The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania continued its session yesterday afternoon. A large number of Past Grand Lodges were admitted as new members, and the attendance of representatives was unusually large.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Theodore Reinhardt was arrested last evening by Officer Leitch on the charge of committing an assault and battery on a woman named Mary. When the officer approached him, he drew a pistol, and threatened to shoot the officer.

STEARING JEWELRY.—Matthew O'Brian, a man who was dressed in a gold watch and chain from the city of Philadelphia, was arrested by Officer Leitch on the charge of stealing jewelry. He was found in possession of a large quantity of jewelry, including watches, chains, and bracelets.

THE WORK we write with the Carbonized Pen has been placed in the hands of the public. It is a new and improved pen, and is well adapted for writing in ink. It is made of a fine quality of steel, and is well adapted for writing in ink.

A STRANGE DRIVE.—Matthew S. Smith was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of driving in a horse and carriage on Second and Girard streets. He was found in possession of a large quantity of goods, including clothing, shoes, and hats.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—An attempt was made to rob a man named John Smith, who was driving in a horse and carriage on Second and Girard streets. The man was armed with a pistol, and threatened to shoot the robber.

WIFE BEATEN.—Henry Springer, residing at No. 1715 Market street, was arrested last evening on the charge of beating his wife. He was found in possession of a large quantity of goods, including clothing, shoes, and hats.

COTTON MILL ON FIRE.—The alarm of fire in the morning about 10 o'clock, was caused by the burning of the cotton-mill of the Globe Cotton Mill, on Germantown road, below Girard street. The fire was caused by a defective boiler.

LAW ADDRESS.—Hon. William S. Pierce, Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, will deliver the annual address before the Law Academy of Philadelphia, at 8 o'clock this evening, in the District Court room.

THE NATIONAL UNION JOHNSON CLUB.

By order of the National Union Johnson Club, of this city, which has been organized for the purpose of maintaining the measures and policies of President Johnson's administration, the executive committee of the club are now engaged in making arrangements for a grand demonstration at the Academy of Music, which will take place on Saturday evening next.

ADDRESSES will be delivered by the Hon. J. R. Doolittle, from Wisconsin, Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator from Pennsylvania, Hon. Columbus Delano, of Ohio, Hon. Green Clay Smith, of Kentucky, ex-Governor Randall, of Wisconsin, and Senator Arthur C. Minnesota.

These gentlemen are all prominent leaders in the Johnson party, and their speeches on this occasion will possess the greatest interest. The committee of the club are in correspondence with Secretary Seward, and we learn, have hopes that he may be induced to visit in our city for a short time on his way to Washington and address the people.

KNOCKED A MAN DOWN.—Robert Davidson, residing at 70th and Wood streets, feeling in a quarrelsome mood last evening, made an attack upon a man named John Smith, who was walking in the street. Davidson knocked Smith down, and then fled.

FERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of cholera, shiver, or in one night, taking a few drops of this medicine, and bathing with it freely, it is the best remedy in America.

It cures cholera, shiver, and all the ailments of the stomach, and is the best remedy in America. It restores the system, and is the best remedy in America.
